Community Conversations: "We Make the Road by Walking". Please join us for this journey exploring the basics of our faith: in the bible, in our songs, and in our words. For session 2 on Jan. 15 Jess Mix, our Minister of Worship, will lead us in an insightful conversation about The Faith We Sing: The Good, Bad and Ugly of Hymnology. And in session 3 on Jan. 22 Pastor Lindsay Small will help us take an honest look at the The Cliches We Bring: Are They Even Christian? Wednesday nights @ 6:30pm in N1.

The Colossian Way: Politics - At a time when the political environment drives us apart, what is the Christian community to do? We come together in Christ-like love and mutual respect. Save space on Wednesday nights, beginning in February, for an opportunity to practice virtue while discussing tough issues surrounding our politics. If interested, please sign up online at www.fellowshipreformed.org/events

Better Together Bible Study: Looking to study the Bible with others? Come on Wednesday nights & join the group that studies our weekly text before it is preached on Sunday at 6:30pm in room N3.

Hebrew 101: We will have a course Wednesday evenings engaging in Hebrew culture, language, & practices. Participants will be learning a few Hebrew songs & words, while doing a deep dive into a specific passage in the Hebrew text. Expect laughter, trying new things, learning more about God & yourself, and connecting on a new level with the people in the group. If interested, please sign up online at www.fellowshipreformed.org/events

March for Life: Right to Life is having their annual March for Life on Saturday, January 18 at 11:00 am at the Central Avenue Christian Reformed Church. Following the March, there will be a Devotional & Prayer Service for Unborn Children in the Ministry Center of the church. The event is free. Contact Amanda Price for more information (616-540-7222).

Christians Uniting in Song and Prayer (CUSP): will hold its 3rd annual celebration of the International Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, on Sunday, January 19th, 5pm, at First United Methodist Church, 57 W. 10th St., Holland. The service will be led by Rev. Tania Dozeman of First United Methodist, with the sermon by Rev. Benjamin Petroelje of 14th Street CRC. The 60-voice Holland Ecumenical Choir, directed by Robert J. Batastini of St. Francis de Sales, the DeSales Brass, and organist, Rhonda Sider Edgington of Hope Church will lead the music. Before the service, the choir will sing a special tribute commemorating Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

Martin Luther King Day of Service: Monday January 20th at 9am. Maple Ave Ministries is hosting Hygiene kit packing event. These packs will bless houseless families and be distributed through local schools. Please consider dropping off hygiene products January 15-17 or stop by for the event on the 20th.
