"Who Dat?"

Walk the streets of New Orleans on a Sunday in the fall and if you ask a local, "Who dat?" you might be surprised to hear a cheer come out. "Who dat say they gonna beat dem saints?" The New Orleans Saints football team fans chant that refrain throughout the Superdome on Sundays as they root for their favorite team. What's most interesting, though, is that if you ask locals, "What is a 'Who Dat'?" they are quick to reply, "A Saints fan." The chant is a question and an identity.

For the first 4 months of 2022, Fellowship Church will be asking the question, "Who is this man?" It's an authentic question as we seek to dig deeper into the man Jesus Christ of Nazareth. As we venture through the Gospel of John, we will closely examine the stories of Jesus with curiosity about exactly who this man Jesus is, was, and will be. I hope though, on a more personal level, we will also be able to more fully realize our identity as Christ followers.

Amidst all of the uncertainty the past two years have brought us, our mission has remained as central and important as ever. Fellowship Church exists to love God and others as an accepting community, centered in Christ, focused on developing faithful followers of Jesus. The world needs more people that embody that mission. Putting our focus and attention on Jesus in the Gospel of John will help us to embody the love, grace, unity, and humility we claim in that mission.

In the following pages of this Ministry Guide, you will encounter some practical ways that you can join us in living that mission out. We hope you might take the next step in getting curious about "Who Dat Fellowship Church is." In doing so, we trust you will encounter and find your identity in Jesus Christ, the one in whom we find our center.

Grace and peace to you,
Nate Schipper, Pastor of Congregational Engagement

Fellowship Groups are our way of doing life together. We gather regularly for the sake of belonging, growing, and serving together. This could look like a book study, gathering to do a project, enjoying a meal, discussing Sunday's sermon, or just having fun together. Our hope is that everyone is a part of a Fellowship Group. If you are not currently in a group, contact the church office, or use the QR code below to sign-up, or create your own group. You can also check out the Fellowship Groups heading on the Community Night page in this Ministry Guide to see how you can join a short-term group on Wednesday nights!
